THE JWOD PROGRAM: QUALITY, VALUE AND EMPLOYMENT...

Your purchases of supplies and services provided under the Javits-Wagner-O'Day (JWOD) Program create thousands of jobs for people who are blind or have other severe disabilities working in nonprofit agencies nationwide. JWOD customers are assured of quality products and services—equal to or better than comparable commercial choices—delivered when you need them and at reasonable prices. At the same time, you are complying with mandatory source requirements stipulated by the JWOD Act of 1971 and the Federal Acquisition Regulation (FAR) Subpart 8.7.

If you are new to the JWOD Program, we invite you to use this catalog to become acquainted with many of our supplies and services and become a JWOD customer. If you are already a JWOD supporter, we hope this catalog will introduce you to our newer products and services, as well as remind you of the wide range of high quality JWOD supplies available. We appreciate your business!

Sincerely,

The JWOD Team

The Committee for Purchase From People Who Are Blind or Severely Disabled is an independent agency of the Federal Government. In accordance with the legislative history of the Javits-Wagner-O'Day (JWOD) Act (41 U.S.C. 46–48c), the Committee's mission is to increase employment and training opportunities for persons who are blind or have other severe disabilities and, whenever possible, to prepare them to engage in competitive employment. The Committee's primary means of achieving this objective is to direct the Government to procure commodities and services provided by nonprofit agencies employing such persons.

The Committee members include representatives of the following Departments and Agencies:

Air Force

Army

Agriculture

Commerce

Defense

Education

General Services Administration

Justice

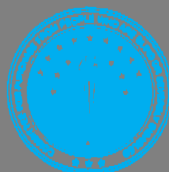

Labor

Navy

Veterans Affairs

and

Four Private Citizens Representing People Who Are Blind or Who Have
Other Severe Disabilities
